FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

INSPECTION OF TALUK TREASURIES.

To—The Deputy Commissioners, Treasury Department, of all Districts.

No. 2040, dated 20th—22nd February 1904.

I. Adverting to para 62 of Government Order No. 1150-1192—18-1901-2, dated 7th February 1903, the Comptroller has the honor to impress upon all Deputy Commissioners the fact that the responsibility for the proper management and efficient working of all the Treasuries in their respective Districts rests entirely with them. Government Order No. 8547-55—R. F. 213-92, dated 11th December 1892, requires that every Sub-Treasury in a District should be inspected by the Deputy Commissioner or by one of his Assistants once at least every six months and the result of each examination reported to this office. One of these half-yearly inspections at least has, as recently required by Government, to be technical and as such should be conducted by the District Treasury Officer himself and reported to this Office through the Deputy Commissioner.

II. Deputy Commissioners are therefore requested to be so good as to arrange for the requisite systematic inspection of all the Sub-Treasuries in their Districts. In special cases where further examination by an expert is found necessary, a qualified officer from this office will be deputed for the work.

III. Revised printed forms of inspection report will be sent on receipt from the Press. Till then the existing report forms may be used.

H. EAGLES, Offg. Comptroller.
